Benefits of this seminar:-

- A simple program for enjoying freedom from many human limitations including freedom from all dis-ease.
- A way to access enough free energy to live in the rhythm of health, happiness and harmony within ourselves and with all life.
- The knowledge and application of powerful Cosmic Coding to live a life of joy, ease and Grace and know via experience what true unity consciousness is.
- A simple way to receive all the gifts of a wise and infinitely loving universe and how to commune more directly with its flows of infinite wisdom so we can always see the bigger picture in life.
- A lifestyle of alignment to the purest flows of love that can nourish us on all levels.

In this gathering Jasmuheen will begin by sharing The Science of Unity Consciousness while applying specific and powerful coding for personal & global unity by utilising quantum intelligence, universal law and futuristic science of the Unified worlds.

In level 2 of this 4-day intensive she will introduce her new work on the powerful “I, Essence” program sharing both the benefits and the methodology of living deep in the Essence Ocean of Infinite nourishment in a way that allows all to maintain the rhythm of health, happiness and harmony within ourselves and with all life.

About Jasmuheen

Founder of the Embassy of Peace, Jasmuheen is famous for her pioneering work in utilizing prana, or chi and universal life force energy to eliminate all human hungers so that people become free from many human limitations. Her work has always been about the gifts that come from union with our own pure and perfect Essence nature and how this brings all involved into a state of permanent peace so they can be a nourishing presence for an enlightened flow of human evolution.

Jasmuheen’s main service agenda is the raising of consciousness to co-create a healthy, harmonious world. A meditator for over 44 years, the lifetime President of the GCSS in India, Jasmuheen, specialises in deep inner plane journeys using the alchemical meditative process to allow people to merge even deeper with their own enlightened nature.

As an Ambassador of Peace for the Embassy of Peace, she has travelled constantly since 1994 and achieved many positive things in the world with her work with tribal cultures in Colombia, the Amazons and also the slums in Brazil plus working with various levels of government including presenting her work again at the UN in Vienna in 2013.

Through this time, she has been instrumental in helping to educate millions into better global resource usage via developing a stronger connection to the Divine resource within and since 1993 has been personally nourished by prana and for over 23 years she has lived without the need to take physical food.

In her tour time this year she will share an update into her research on this, provide deeper connections and insights into the Essence Ocean and its Pure Love channel, that feeds us all, discuss spontaneous healing, plus our current evolutionary status on earth according to the Divine Feminine and the Light Beings she works with and much more.

The author of 39 books that are now in 19 languages, a deeply peaceful person, Jasmuheen is light, entertaining and always filled with love and her gatherings are always inspirational!

Jasmuheen writes on Pranic Living – “this journey is about enjoying the grandest love affair that we can ever know, a love affair that fills every cell with joy, making every part of us tingle so deliciously and vibrate to such a perfect rhythm that all we can feel is complete. When this Essence energy reveals its field within and around us, it is as if Heaven has opened its doors and flooded us with its potential, a way to be on earth that is unlike any other, a way to see and be and sense existence that is so peaceful, so profound, that all we can feel is grateful that we have this life, here, now. In this state of revelation and awareness, it is impossible to know hunger.”
