- Tuning to and experiencing more of the Divinely given LUSCIOUS LIFESTYLES PROGRAM for Health, Happiness & Harmony - a lifestyle that also increases our own life force that also changes our resonance and how the quantum field responds to us, that also has the power to end all disease within and around us on Earth ...
- Jasmuheen will also train those open to being Diplomats of Love for the Divine Feminine in how to share more of this lifestyle with others.
- She will also continue to share more of the angelic energies, plus their PATHWAYS OF PEACE and healing tones.

Many at this retreat will also be making commitments to officially be Embassy Affiliates - Diplomats of Love and/or Ambassadors of Peace - and to then experience the amazing Grace that this type of service can bring us all in life!

In this gathering we will also all be ...

- Nourished on deeper, purer levels as we enjoy the perfect retreat as both a holiday and a wonderful way to be recharged so that you leave this gathering feeling refreshed, energised, wiser, stronger, strengthened and well supported by both inner and outer plane networks!
- We invite you to take this time, have some fun, to be super-creative and enjoy the more sustainable paths that benefit us all.
- In this retreat we will sit in deep meditation to finetune all our internal and external systems as guided by the group divinity, in ways that are perfect for us all.
- Be prepared to spend personal and also group time in silence, to go deeper into your own intuitive nature and to then share from that pure and perfect part that you carry within that is so wise, loving and aware while you add your insight-gifts to this group field.

"In the Beingness of love, all is perfect, all is understood, all are just rhythms of awareness and awakening; there is no judgement of right or wrong, or good or bad, or struggle and pain and confusion. All is simply love. All is unfolding in the rhythms of love, held in a field of love, fed by love and is pure and perfect because of this." - Jasmuheen

Manifesting what you need to attend:- As we advise everyone, who is thinking of attending a retreat with Jasmuheen, please check in meditation and see if it feels right to come. If it does then ask the intelligent Universal Field and the Divine One Within you to clear the way so you can attend with joy and ease. Ask that the money comes to you, or babysitters for your children, or whatever you need. If you are meant to be part of these wonderful gatherings, with beautiful like-minded people, then the way will be made clear as we all know that when something is destined to be then we are all provided for.

Translation:- Please note that small groups will be attending from various countries and so there may be a degree of translation as required. Training data will be provided in USB or DVD format in many of the major languages.

Message from Mother Mary and the divine feminine – received through Jasmuheen

"What can we tell a world that is now consumed with so much change? Can any words shared be enough to encourage the opening to the greatest love that any being can ever know? Or is patience and compassion and silence more effective? How can we say to those who wish to save this world that this world is already on her path to great salvation? To say that there lies within the human heart the divine heart with the power to radiate an eternal flow of such Grace that all who venture near will be transformed ... can this be truth?

To say that the ascension of your people lies in the being and not just the doing, that to take time in silence, stillness and solitude to open to the Kingdom of Heaven within you, to feel the love of the Divine heart and its all consuming wisdom, to allow the rising of this love through you and out beyond you as you walk through this world ... for you to know this as truth is the greatest gift that you can give yourself and also those around.

When this pure and perfect love flows through you it nourishes and transforms you, yet when it touches another it draws out from deep within them this same pure love to fill you all with the glory of creation. Paradise is your world right now when this becomes your truth.

The purpose of your time on Earth is only to experience the joy within the revelation of the greatest love that human heart was always designed to know. With the awakening and the blossoming of the Divine Heart within you, you will be love in motion ... you will be peace in motion and those whose hearts are purified by this will walk in the Garden of Eden once more ..."

The purpose of the training of the Diplomats of Love & the Ambassadors of Peace is to support the revelation of Earth as a Garden of Eden for all who are open to experience this.

Message from the Intergalactic Federation of World's Council: The Embassy of Peace became the official point of contact, for members of the various interdimensional Peace Councils, when it was formed at our invitation on the 7th of the 7th 2007.
